

Accessing Harcourt Reading/Language Arts Activities Online

These directions only work on the Windows machines at this time. Access will be added to the iMacs soon. You only need to enter the password and login information once for both Reading and Language Arts. Be sure to bookmark the sites.

- From Internet Explorer, logon to <http://www.harcourtschool.com/>
- Click on the red box, “The Learning Site”
- Choose Reading

- Click on the blue “Trophies” banner
- Click on the cluster of books
- Enter the password – farr, then Woodland and Minnesota
- Click on the purple “Explore” toucan in the lower right corner
- Choose a grade or activity

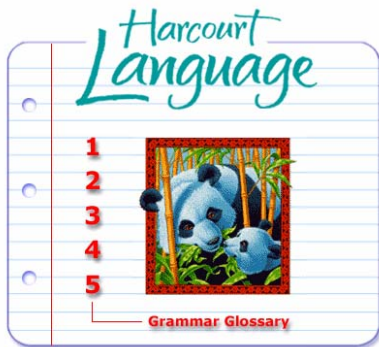

OR, to choose a language arts activity, see next page

- Choose Language Arts from the subject list

- Click on the cluster of books
- Enter the password, then Woodland and MN
- Click on the wild cat icon in the lower right corner
- Choose a level to access activities

Once you have accessed both the reading and language arts sites, you will not need to login with a password again. The reading site will ask you to click on the blue Trophies banner, and the language arts site will ask you to click on the cluster of books.
