

School-Home Connection

Your child is reading “Ants.” The pictures and words in this story show how ants work together.

I have tried some of the activities.

You may want to do some of these activities with your child.

Words, Words, Words

- Have your child cut out the word cards and read each word.
- Help your child think of other words that rhyme with each new word.
- Ask your child to make up an original sentence for each new word.

Ants on the Job

Ask your child to tell you what he or she learned about ants. Go to the library and look in books and magazines for pictures of ants. Also, look outdoors for groups of ants working together. Then talk about jobs you have to do around the house, such as washing dishes or tidying a room. Discuss how working together can make the job easier. Pick one job to do together – and have fun getting to work!

TIME TO READ

Encourage your child to read for at least 30 minutes outside of class each day.
